

Building Your Inner Circle “Personal Board of Advisors”

Like an organization, be intentional about finding people to help shape your present and future.

Building a Personal Board:

- Find your professional passion. Why are you committed to working in your current field as a professional?
- Define your professional mission and vision. Can you give a concise statement for each?
- Articulate your goals. Can you write down what you hope to accomplish and do you like where it’s taking you?
- How would you align a board of directors to help you find your passion, achieve your mission and vision, execute your goals?

Four Categories:

1. Sector Experts – leaders in your current sector or in an aspirational sector
2. Technical Experts – individuals who have specific tactical knowledge you value
3. Aspirational Advisors – Position/experience advisors (not necessarily in your sector)
4. Personal Advisors/Confidants – Those you trust to help you work through challenges
